

MINA HYUN

ASSOCIATE (COMMERCIAL LITIGATION & DISPUTE RESOLUTION)

I am a collaborative team player and want to achieve the best possible outcome for my clients. This can only be achieved through a joint effort and contribution by as many interested stakeholders as possible.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

Mina is a young lawyer driven by the S&A value of delivering exceptional results.

Mina graduated from Macquarie University with a combined Bachelor of Laws / Bachelor of commerce, majoring in International business.

Mina has a passion for commercial law and offers our clients unique solutions to complex legal disputes. She provides high level advice in all aspects of commercial litigation and has run small claims hearings in the Local Court of NSW, as well as having worked in all levels of the State and Federal Courts and Tribunals.

Mina's experience extends to acting for a myriad of clients in all state and federal jurisdictions in a wide range of matters including intellectual property, consumer law, contractual and consumer disputes.

Mina works with our clients to help them resolve their disputes in a cost effective and strategically beneficial manner. She is focused on finding dispute resolution processes that offer the best possible outcome for our clients.
